Welcome to the Holy Land!
Welcome to HLITOA!

It is my pleasure to present you with the 2019 edition of the HLITOA Members Directory – Your reference for finding an incoming tour operator or DMC for all your tour operation and travel business, whether it is leisure, cooperate or any specialisation, across the Holy Land.

The Holy Land Incoming Tour Operators Association (HLITOA), is a network built by the shareholders of the Palestinian tourism sector. Our association represents incoming tourism professionals serving the wider Holy Land including Palestine, Jordan, Israel, Egypt & Lebanon.

Our mission is to provide you the experience of discovering the region without the complexities of navigating logistical challenges. HLITOA members have the expertise and knowledge to help you through the complications of international and cross-cultural travel in a region that has more than its fair share of challenges, alongside its many virtues.

On behalf of all our members, welcome to HLITOA and welcome to the Holy Land!

Ihab Jabari, Director & Advisor to the Board

4 Reasons to Work with HLITOA Tour Operators

100% COVERAGE

HLITOA members have a unique advantage to offer: 100% full coverage and ease of accessibility in Palestine, Israel & Jordan, as well as coverage for extensions to Egypt and Lebanon. There are literally no white spots on the map when operating your tour with an HLITOA tour operator.

EXPERIENCE

Each HLITOA member has a history of involvement in tourism and pilgrimage. Most business are family-run, many for generations, and have collected expertise over many years and through changing situations.

SECURITY

Through a close network of information, HLITOA members have knowledge of a situation before it escalates into a problem, giving them the upper hand in solving matters fast and assuring a smooth and safe tour operation.

SERVICE & AVAILABILITY

In a context where situations change at very short notice, HLITOA members provide round the clock service before, during and after any of your tours. Continuous updates on evolving situations keep you informed before your clients might start worrying.

Alternative Tourism Group (ATG)

Come and See Palestine

The Alternative Tourism Group (ATG) is a Palestinian NGO which specializes in tours and pilgrimages that include a critical examination of the history, culture, and politics of the Holy Land.

Established in 1995, ATG operates according to the tenets of "justice tourism". This form of tourism holds as its central goals the creation of economic opportunities for the local community, and affirmative cultural exchanges between the visitor and host through one-on-one interactions, the protection of the environment, and political/historical education.

Specialities of ours: Pilgrimages for Transformation, Nativity Trail & Solidarity Tourism.

George Garabedian Co. Tourist & Travel Bureau

Over 90 Years of Excellence!

George Garabedian Co. Tourist & Travel Bureau in Jerusalem has been established as a Christian family run tour operator in 1925 and has continuously grown over the years to be one of the leading tour operators in the Holy Land with a multi-lingual and experienced staff.

We serve clients and tour operators from around the world focusing on religious and general sightseeing groups and individuals as well as business travelers.

We have an expansive experience in handling large groups of over 1000 people and large conferences.

Based on the decision of the company to diversify our services, we have now established this corporation under GGC Group, which also runs three other different companies:

- GGC Tourist Transport: a tourist bus company with 15 modern large buses, 1 mini bus and 2 vans.
- Jordan, a travel agency in Amman, Jordan.
- Christmas Hotel, a charming boutique hotel of 35 rooms in Jerusalem in walking distance to the Old City.

Our company is privately owned and directed by the Afifi family, whose members have a proud history of building long-term relationships with customers, suppliers and business partners, both locally and internationally. Afifi Group consists of ten companies with operations ranging from transportation, tourism, hotels and IT, to investment in real-estate and owns more than 700 buses.

Incoming department:

We are specialized in customized tours to the Middle East for pilgrims and tourists. Our department was established in the mid 1980's. We arrange tailor-made tours that suit every customer's need; tours for individual travelers and all types of groups including church tours for Catholics and other Christians from all denominations, fun and sun holidays, country exploration to historical tours, from conference planning to incentive tours.

The 'Nazarene experience' includes guided excursions in The Holy Land, as well as in Jordan, Egypt and Turkey, if desired, to complement and enhance your tour. We recognizes that Jordan, Egypt and Turkey have their own special attractions, making our tours "holidays of a lifetime". We can offer you the chance to tour the whole region and sample more of its delights.

We are proud of our cooperation with Kuoni, GTA, Tauck, Collette Vacations, Go Ahead Tours, Isropa Reizen and other travel agents, acting as their handling agent in Israel for many years.

Priority Travel & Tours

Renew and Energize your Christian Faith!

Priority Travel & Tours has been serving Christian groups by arranging pilgrimages and tours for two decades.

Priority was established in 1988. The founder, Mike Sayyad, was born and raised in Bethfage on the Mount of Olives in Jerusalem not far from the church which marks the traditional site where Jesus mounted the donkey to begin his Palm Sunday triumphal ride.

The company has continued to grow. Today, Priority not only has offices in Jerusalem and the United States, but also affiliate offices in Egypt and Jordan. We have enabled thousands of Christians to experience the lands in which Christian history has unfolded.

Mike works diligently to maintain Priority Travel and Tours' high standards of quality, integrity and exceptional service. He continues to operate the company on the fundamental principle that "travel is a ministry of education".

Samara Tourist & Travel Agency

For All Your Travel Needs in the Holy Land and the Near East Region

Established in 1963 this family-owned tour operator business has flourished and has become one of the leading businesses in East Jerusalem.

With over 50 years of experience in tending to all travel needs of travelers and pilgrims alike to the Holy Land and the entire region, our strength lies within the personal attention and customized tours and products offered to each visitor whether individually or travelling with an organized group.

Surviving the ups and downs of the political climate which has a great effect on the flux of tourism to the region, we at Samara Tourist & Travel Agency have developed a survival strategy that has been quite effective over the recent difficult years.

Looking to the future and new trends in global tourism, the business is adapting new marketing strategies and creating a new and diverse selection of touring products that encourage an increase in the number of tourists and entice new target markets to come.

We are commited to assuring continuity and exposure to the many different themes which our lovely country has to offer. From the faith-based tourism to heritage and cultural tours, as well as nature-oriented green tours, these are just a few of the successful and memorable experiences offered to our clients.

Our special offers also include: Women tours, culinary tours and destination weddings at Cana.

UNIVERSAL
TOURIST AGENCY
At your service since 1960

Universal Tourist Agency

Serving You in the Holy Land since 1960

Universal Tourist Agency is a second generation family-operated agency that has provided reliable and distinctive travel products ever since Naim Tarazi opened the agency in 1960. Our passion for showing our guests a true and authentic Holy Land, coupled with our efficient, reliable and experienced team all play a pivotal role in providing our clients with a rewarding and enjoyable experience.

Come in for a coffee, and we can tell you about our very interesting (never-ending) story!

Our main objective is to satisfy your curiosity pallet while providing the highest standards of unique and exclusive services coupled with personalized care of a dedicated and experienced team. Our excitement starts when helping you prepare your desired program by reviewing your interests and preferences then providing you with a host of alternatives. After all we are the Palestinian Christians of the Holy Land and it brings us joy to host you in our little country.

Our service is pillared on the principals of determination, honesty and insightfulness going the extra mile communicating your needs and preferences to make your experience memorable and pleasant. If you are interested in a star gazing night around a Bedouin fire, a culinary experience cooking your own culinary delight, an evening chat over dinner with a local community leader, or even an extended relaxation session at the Dead Sea — the possibilities with us are endless and extend to religious groups as well as focused groups, immersion tours and family visits, to name but a few.

"What interests me in life is curiosity, challenges, the good fight with its victories and defeats". Paulo Coelho
